

Expected short-term outcomes

Increased % of families who feel prepared to care for children placed in homes

Increased % of families who understand the impact of separation and loss

Increased knowledge in core competency areas

Increased self-awareness in determining ability to foster/adopt

Increased access to training and supports after pre-service training

Increased knowledge of intervention strategies

Expected long-term outcomes

- Improved placement stability
- Improved permanency rates
- Increased child well being
- Increased family well being

